Sited on a quiet, private drive, this Northwest Contemporary in city oasis will enchant. Natural light pours in from every window and offers above the treetops views of the Cascades and Fremont. A winding stairway connects the floors from the upper primary retreat with sitting room, walk through closet and renovated bath down to the basement two car garage with storage and workspace. Open flow on the main floor is designed for entertaining. A chef's kitchen with eating bar, adjacent family room, dining and living area with see-through fireplace spills out to a magical garden for al fresco dining or relaxation. Centrally located near Rogers Park, Seattle Pacific University, easy transit and a short walk over the Fremont bridge to amenities.
