Welcome to Woodinville

RECREATION WINERIES INDEPENDENT FAMILY FRIENDLY NATURE

Around the Block

Come to Woodinville for a luxurious, weekend destination appeal. This rapidly growing city lives just a half hour away from downtown Seattle and attracts thousands of visitors every year, but it still manages to maintain the charm of a little-known secret. There's so much to do here; from horseback riding to hot air ballooning, Woodinville never fails to surprise and delight.

What to expect: Here you'll find a strong farm-to-table attitude paired with a picturesque setting.

The lifestyle: An idyllic suburb with large lots, friendly neighbors, and everything you might need to settle down and stay a while.

You'll fall in love with: You can have a once-in-a-lifetime experience every weekend.

A Perfect Weekend

The Chateau Ste. Michelle Winery, established 1975, is the oldest winery in Washington, and it is still considered the best. Beyond their iconic wine tastings, the chateau also hosts a plethora of events: trivia nights, cheese and chocolate tastings, and even comedy nights.
